❖ JUNE-JULY 2023 ❖

BEING

1 John 3:1-3 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

On Sunday, May 28th, the St. Paul Bishop Bible Class started our study of Article 4 of the Augsburg Confession. I understand that not everyone who reads this article will attend or is able to attend this class, but the discussions that we are going to have over the next couple weeks are of extreme importance. Luther referred to this article as the one "on which the church stands or falls." What is the topic of this article? It is justification by grace, through faith.

What does this mean? Put simply, we confess that when it comes to our salvation, God does everything. When we were dead in our sins, unable to approach God, much less appease Him, He came to us. This started in the Garden of Eden, when God sacrificed an animal to cover the shame of his people, and this sacrifice made its ultimate fulfillment in Jesus. When we owed God our very lives for our sins, God sent His Son Jesus to give his life up for us. On account of this sacrifice, we are pleasing to God. On account of this sacrifice, we get to be called his children.

Just like the natural children of human beings do not become children of their own wills, but because of the relationship they have with their parents, our relationship as the children of God is not based on anything that we do. Children do not give anything to their parents to make them children. Children do not do anything for their parents to make them children. Children do not say magic words to their parents to make them children. They are children because of the love and the declaration of the parents.

The children of God cannot give anything to become the children of God. The children of God cannot do anything to become the children of God. The children of God cannot say magic words or incantations to become the children of God. They are His children because he has declared them to be so through the life, death, and resurrection of His Son.

This means that the first and only thing that a Christian needs to "DO" is to BE. There are things that Christians DO because they ARE Christians, but the thing that gives them their identity is the declaration of God. And this is a very good thing.

This is a very good thing because when God is responsible for our identity, then our burdened consciences can be at peace. If we had to do, give, or say something to be God's children then we could never be truly sure that we were saved. However, when who we are is fully reliant on who he is, then we can rest assured in his perfect ability to create what is pleasing to him. And He does create what is pleasing to him in Word, in water, in body, and in blood.

The practical implications for this, I will leave for next month's newsletter article where I will talk about the Christian life. Until then, please BE God's people. Come to church where your pastor and your fellow Christians will remind you of who you have been made in Christ Jesus. Rejoice and be at peace, knowing that God is pleased to call you His. Amen.

Pastor Ulmer

+ Christian Symbols +

EYE OF GOD

This symbol represents our “all-seeing” God, who is present everywhere and is always watching over us. (“The eyes of the Lord are in every place,” Proverbs 15:3, NRSV.) The eye is inside an equilateral triangle, which is associated with the Holy Trinity.

+ Christian Symbols +

DOLPHIN

Because dolphins often swim alongside ships, they've been used to symbolize Christ's presence, guiding people through earthly life and into eternal life. Although they're mammals, dolphins have been depicted as the fish that swallowed Jonah. Jesus compared his three days inside the tomb to Jonah's three days inside the fish, so dolphins also came to symbolize resurrection.
